BIG HILL SHIP HAS MORE TOURISTS THAN BEFORE

"Of the 359 cabin passengers who are now coming to Honolulu in the Great Northern, at least 250 are visitors who would never have seen Hawaii had it not been for the Great Northern and the company's policy of advertising the islands," said Fred L. Waldron, president of Fred L. Waldron, Ltd., Honolulu agents for the Hill liner, today.

Yesterday the local agents received a wireless from Capt. A. Ahman, the liner's commander, giving the number of cabin passengers on board this trip as 359. This is 139 more than the number brought by the Great Northern on her first regular call here on the triangular run, December 3. Then she had only 220 first and second cabin passengers.

The Great Northern is due to arrive at Hilo at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, and to dock here, at Pier 7, at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. The radio from Capt. Ahman gave the liner's freight cargo for Honolulu as 985 tons, and mail for here to be 354 bags. There are 55 autos and 117 bags of mail for Hilo.

In commenting upon the comparatively small amount of freight the Great Northern is bringing, 985 tons, the local agents this morning said that if Honolulu should wake up some fine morning to find the Great Northern no longer on the Honolulu run, the lack of freight patronage from the coast here would be one of the reasons. By the close of this month, the Great Northern will have brought, in two voyages, a total of 579 passengers to Honolulu.

"The Great Northern should have from 1500 to 2000 tons of freight for Honolulu on this trip," said Mr. Waldron. "Honolulu merchants and other shippers are not doing their share when out of all the freight shipped here from the coast they give the Great Northern hardly a thousand tons." The liner can carry approximately 3500 tons dead weight.

SAILING VESSEL AT HILO HAS WIRELESS

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
HILO, Dec. 17.—Although many sailing vessels are nowadays equipped with wireless apparatus, one of the many had never, until Monday last, entered Hilo Bay so fitted out. The first windjammer with a radio outfit on board to enter Hilo harbor is the bark W. B. Flint, which is from Port Townsend to Hilo, loaded with lumber consigned to H. Hackfeld & Co. The vessel has a full wireless plant but, on this voyage, has no wireless operator, as "Sparks" left the ship in Alaskan waters.

The W. B. Flint had a good voyage down, although striking some rough weather in the north.

SERRAO WILL PILOT HILO SHIPS TO PORT

L. Serrao was appointed by the harbor board as a substitute pilot for the port of Hilo Saturday, taking the place of the regular pilot, Capt. Ferdinand Mosher, who is quite ill. Serrao will bring the Great Northern up to the Kahoia wharf on her next run into Hilo. He was appointed Saturday on the understanding that he will receive no pay from the harbor board for his services, but that the regular pilot will allow him compensation. The substitute pilot, who has a regular license, will be sent his commission.

Due here Friday morning with the last mail to reach here before Christmas is the T. K. K. steamer Chiyo Maru, from San Francisco. She sailed at 3:45 Saturday afternoon.

HARBOR NOTES

The Kinau reports the following sugar list on Kauai: Makaweli, 13,000 bags; Koloa, 8000; Kekaha, 700.

At 7:20 last night the Matson steamer Hyades sailed for San Francisco by way of Port Allen, Kahului and Hilo.

The bark British Yeoman is reported discharging coal, and the bark Ivanhoe discharging nitrate at Port Allen.

The American steamer Mackinaw, from here October 30, is being overhauled at the Wallace shipyards at Vancouver.

The Inter-Island steamer Claudine brought in 38 cabin and 21 deck passengers yesterday from Maui. Freight was miscellaneous.

The American merchant marine comprises 26,701 registries, according to The Nation's Business, official organ of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

Personal effects of Philip Hanalei, Hawaiian sailor on an American-Hawaiian steamer, who was drowned in Philadelphia, have been received here, the Arizona bringing them to the custom-house for relatives.

A large passenger list, also a sizable cargo, was brought in yesterday by the Kinau, from Kauai. She had 320 sheep, 17 pigs, 3877 bags of K. B. sugar, and rice, bran, molasses and sundries. Passengers were, 61 cabin and 73 deck.

Orders for the construction of another auxiliary power schooner at St. Helena, Ore. of the same type as the City of Portland, now nearing completion there, have been issued by the Charles R. McCormick Company of San Francisco.

Bids for the purchase of the coast and geodetic survey steamers Gedney and McArthur will be received in Washington, D. C., down to noon, December 30, by the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey. The steamers are now at Seattle.

An effort was made by the Toyo Kisen Kaisha to purchase the steamer Eburna from the Union Iron Works of San Francisco, according to an officer of the T. K. K. steamer Persia Maru, here Saturday. He said the deal fell through because too high a price was asked. The Eburna was later sold by the Iron Works for $750,000.

Two mails leave for the coast tomorrow. The first will go out about 10 tomorrow morning, from Pier 7, on the T. K. K. liner Tenyo Maru, and the second on the Lurline, sailing at 4 in the afternoon from Pier 19. After that the next mail will not leave for the coast until a week later, on the Sonoma, December 28.

Bringing 44,000 barrels of fuel oil from Port San Luis for the Union Oil Company, the oil-tanker Santa Maria entered port this morning to discharge cargo. She arrived last night, but had to be fumigated before she could enter as she had not received this treatment since taking an oil cargo from Port San Luis to Tocopele, Chile. Capt. George Curtis is her skipper. She was here last September 16-19.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM AT SALVATION ARMY HOME THIS EVENING

At the Salvation Army home in Manoa this evening Christmas celebrations will begin with a special program under the direction of Adjt. Carrie Sabine and Ensign Rae Payne. On Christmas Eve, presents will be given out to the 72 children who live in the home. The tree has been presented by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Cooke, and is already in place for tonight's entertainment. One of the features of the program this evening will be music by the girls' band of the home, which has been organized only six months, but which has shown much development in this time, according to the instructors.

JAPAN MUSEUM WILL HOLD CONTEST OF FLOWER DESIGNS

Announcement of a prize contest in flower designs is made by the Kyoto Commercial Museum of Kyoto, Japan, for an exhibition to be held in the museum in March, 1916.

Designs must contain two flowers, or more if preferred, from among a list of five. This list includes pansy, sweet pea, maidenhair fern, tulip and thistle. Notice of entrance in the contest must be given to the directors of the museum before February 20, 1916. Thirteen prizes are offered, consisting of gold, silver and copper medals. Diplomas are also given for worthy designs.

MORNING ON 'CHANGE

Olaa continues its rise, which is little short of sensational, in view of the drop in McBryde, and the fact that Olaa is not yet officially a dividend payer. Saturday the stock climbed to 3 7/8 on change, and to 9 3/4, with firm and unsatisfied closing bids at that figure. Sales of the stock listed today total 1455 shares. Waiialae also went up fractionally, but McBryde slumped 1-8, and Onomea closed with big prices one point below Saturday's sales, and offerings half a point off. Sales other than Olaa were only 633 shares.
